Annual City-wide Pet Show Set Saturday

The Annual All City-wide Pet show, sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, will be held at the Torrance Park band shell this next Saturday morning, July 9, at 9:30 a.m.

The pet show is a climax of all the local playground pet shows, and is one of the big special events of the summer. The Dr. Ross Cat and Dog Food Co. has donated a number of cases of cat and dog food along with hundreds of balloons and other novelties to be given away free and as prizes to those that attend.

The winning pets will be awarded ribbons for first, second, and third places. All youngsters should start now getting their pets in shape for this big event, especially if you failed to enter your pet in the local playground pet show last Wednesday, July 6.

Judges for the show will be Dr. Rollin Smith from the Harbor Animal Hospital, Mrs. Ralph Robertson, and Harry Van Bellehem, director of recreation.

"Let's all turn out and win your pet a ribbon... If you don't have a pet, come out anyway and see the show. Parents are also welcome!" the recreation department director announced.

Instruction and rules for the all city wide pet show are available at the Torrance Recreation Department.

Dr. Daniel Colin Munro, M.D., says: "I have never seen a case where a long series of enemas or irrigation failed to improve later bowel activity. I believe that the chief value of this therapy, however, is not in simply emptying the colon, but in cleansing degenerated and infected areas in the bowel wall, which are more or less common to adults, areas through which infection and toxins enter the lymphatics and blood stream, carrying disease to our heart, liver, kidneys and other organs."
